

Federal Government Affairs Director

The Federal Government Affairs Director advocates before Congress on priority goals of _____ and its membership. He/She is responsible for monitoring and analyzing federal legislative activity; maintaining a strong network of contacts with members of Congress and their staff, with an emphasis on the House side; and advise on key _____ developments. Director provides legislative approaches and tactics to achieve goals. Director attends hearings and prepare necessary advocacy materials.

Minimum qualifications: five years legislative/regulatory work experience preferably in _____, proven record of legislative accomplishments, college degree in political science or public policy, effective public speaking, outstanding written communications skills.