Executive Assistant to the Executive Director
Position Description

The National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) seeks a highly skilled and effective executive assistant skilled in working in a fast-paced environment to support the function of the executive director. NAEYC is a Washington, D.C. based professional association whose mission is to serve and act on behalf of the needs, rights and well-being of all young children with primary focus on the provision of educational and developmental services and resources. Founded in 1926, NAEYC is the largest and most influential advocate for high-quality early care and education in the United States.

NAEYC membership includes 70,000 individuals working with and on behalf of children ages birth through eight in child care, Head Start, preschools, public and private K-12 schools, state and local governments, institutions of higher education and research organizations. In addition, the organization includes approximately 300 state and local affiliates in 48 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and Europe.

Position
Reporting directly to the executive director, the executive assistant provides executive support in a one-on-one working relationship. The executive assistant serves as the primary point of contact for internal and external constituencies on all matters pertaining to the NAEYC executive offices. The executive assistant also serves as primary administrative support and contact to the NAEYC National Governing board for all board meeting logistics, preparation and execution of board meetings and communications throughout the year.

The ideal candidate is a mission-driven, multi-tasker who can simultaneously focus on the executive office’s strategic goals and stay focused on important details. He/she must possess a demonstrated track record of serving as a trusted member of a senior organizational team. The individual will have the ability to exercise good judgment in a variety of situations, with strong written and verbal communication, administrative and organizational skills and the ability to maintain a realistic balance among multiple priorities. He/she will have the ability to work independently on projects, from conception to completion, and must be able to work under pressure at times to handle a wide variety of activities and confidential matters with discretion.
